

NORTHCOTT WILL ASSERT THIRD DEGREE COERCION

Accused Slayer's Defense Shows Plan to Discredit Confessions; Lawyers Clash on Jury

BY JAMES M. KENDRICK
"Times" Staff Representative

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 3. (Exclusive)—A battle against asserted third-degree methods said to have been used on Gordon Stewart Northcott will be the bulwark of his attorneys. It was indicated today as his defense counsel began the task of picking the jury to try the asserted slayer of small boys.

Court hardly had opened when Norbert Savay, Northcott's chief counsel, began a series of futile motions, indicating that Northcott's confessions which later were retracted, will be made the butt of the defense during the trial, coming later, on the basis that they were obtained by third-degree methods.

As court closed tonight, it was apparent that the twelve men in the jury box will be questioned further by the defense and probably on the second or third day of the trial, as to what the confessions would have on their verdict in the case.

From the outset of today's hearing the defense lost motion after motion which were put before Judge Freeman. The new clash between the court and Attorney General, however, Savay declared in no uncertain terms that he did not like the attitude of the court on motions he attempted to put forth.

"I frankly must say that I don't like the way this court is taking," Savay said.

"Just sit down and be calm, this is a court of law," Judge Freeman remonstrated with Savay. "You should use respect for the court."

"I can use respect for the court when I believe that I am getting a fair trial," replied Savay, who then refused, when Judge Freeman refused to grant one of the many motions made by the defense counsel.

In addition to the "third-degree" argument he intends to put into his defense, the plucky boy's attorney claimed each prospective juror on his belief of the right to inject an insanity clause into Northcott's defense if they believe his client is insane.

As court adjourned for the day, twelve men whose occupations range from orange growers to mechanics were in the jury box.

STATE SATISFIED

While the prosecution has insisted that it will accept the first twelve jurors, it has been agreed to challenge two for cause and anticipated that at least five more in the jury box at this time will be challenged on peremptory challenges.

One of the prospective jurors is a friend of the parents of the two Winslow youths whom Northcott is accused of slaying. When questioned by the accused slayer's attorney the man was outspoken in his denunciation of the asserted boy murderer.

From Savay's questions prodded to the jurymen it was apparent that the defense had been given a hearing in Northcott's trial. The accused youth, according to his own statement, is of a religious nature.

Between Northcott's counsel, prosecuting attorneys and Judge Freeman, the trial marked the day's proceedings and the accused slayer's attorney fared the worse during the day's hearing it appeared that contempt of court proceedings would follow his efforts on behalf of his client. However, the session ended without court tampering.

While his attorney battled with the court Northcott alternately read law books and wrote with pen and ink on a pad provided for him. As he read he looked from page to page in his book and then would turn and laugh at the chain assigned to news reporters.

Savay in his arguments to the court indicated that he wants a mixed jury to try Northcott and is entitled to exercise his peremptory challenges in an effort to attain that end.

Return of Mr. Louis Northcott, who pleaded guilty to the murder of Walter Collins and who was taken to San Quentin last Monday night, when he told Judge Freeman he is needed as a witness for her son.

SANDSTORM HALTS SEARCH FOR GRAVES

LANCASTER, Jan. 3. (Exclusive)—A sandstorm which swept across the desert at sixty miles an hour this afternoon stymied Capt. Wm. C. Bright, geologist of Los Angeles, and Constable Cummings of this place away from the spot where Fronce says he saw a man burying something last September, and sent three searching to shelter before the search had gotten fairly under way.

The region in which the search was to have been conducted, and where it will be resumed tomorrow in the vicinity of Rosamond Dry Lake, has been described as a "graveyard" of bodies. When Fronce, who is the son of Walter Collins, Lewis and Nelson Winslow and "Richard Northcott," supposed victims of Gordon Stewart Northcott, on trial at Riverside for murder.

The storm, which came up with startling suddenness after the search of these rapidly moving desert blows, drove Capt. Bright, his guide, G. A. Frame, geologist of Los Angeles, and Constable Cummings of this place away from the spot where Fronce says he saw a man burying something last September, and sent three searching to shelter before the search had gotten fairly under way.

The region in which the search was to have been conducted, and where it will be resumed tomorrow in the vicinity of Rosamond Dry Lake, has been described as a "graveyard" of bodies. When Fronce, who is the son of Walter Collins, Lewis and Nelson Winslow and "Richard Northcott," supposed victims of Gordon Stewart Northcott, on trial at Riverside for murder.

He packed on and went to Los Angeles, and only recently decided that what he had witnessed might be of value to the police in their hunt for the bodies of the boys with whose deaths Northcott is charged.

BOYS' CLOTHING FOUND IN ELYSIAN PARK

Mrs. A. L. Godwin of 1874 Avon street found two bundles of boys' clothing in Elyian Park yesterday and turned them over to the police. The clothes, which were in a bundle visible and contained nothing that message was received. It is now 8:30 p.m. and we are heading for San Diego. The battery is getting very weak and we may have to refuel by flashlight. Eaker, Halverson and an official, made contact with the dairymen in the dangerous affair. Lieutenant Halverson voiced the sentiments of the crew in a notation in the log. "It is a relief to have plenty of gas now. We have only two hours' supply left."

From the giant Falck circled around and around the San Fernando Valley and finally, with banks of fog showing little signs of dissipating, Maj. Spatz reluctantly ordered the plane to Imperia Valley, Italy, rather than spend another nerve-wracking and dangerous night as before.

Chances of another such unpleasant experience were minimized by the change in plan. The Falck first proceeded to Rockwell Field where the fog had lifted somewhat and there took on a new storage battery to replace the old one that had run down; also refueled and revivified with success. At 10:30 a.m. the plane was found to have lost the change in plan, not altogether disastrous to the flying.

The announced decision to transfer all operations to Los Angeles as soon as the weather clears means that the crew of this record破世界记录的飞机 will have an opportunity to see the refueling operations at least three times a day as long as the plane is able to remain in the air. Both of the refueling planes and all other equipment dedicated to the refueling station will be brought here.

ADDS TO RECORD

It also means in all probability, abandonment of any effort to set a new world's record for distance flown in a nonstop flight. The ruling which requires the plane to fly back and forth in a circular course has resulted in a general gumming up of the refueling plans whereas if the plane simply circles in the vicinity of its base at the Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport, it can remain for as long as any number of days.

As a matter of fact the Question Mark, at an average speed of seventy miles an hour, which has been maintained throughout the flight, had at 9:30 a.m. for purposes of all refueling records for continuous flight with a total in the neighborhood of 4000 miles. The best-known record is slightly over 4000 miles and was made by Italian flyers in a nonstop trip from Italy to South America.

Every hour that the Question Mark continues in flight from this time on, is another hour added to the new world's record for sustained flight by a heavier-than-air plane.

FIRST TELEGRAM TO PLANE IN FLIGHT DELIVERED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (P)—The first recorded delivery of a commercial telegraph message to an airplane in the air was made today in Washington by the Western Union Telegraph Company. The message went to Capt. Ira G. Eaker of the Army Air Corps on board the plane Question Mark, which is making an endurance record out of the Metropolitan Airport at Los Angeles.

The communication was sent from Washington by Fairfax Naulty and was taken up from the telephone by Capt. Wm. A. Ladd, who piloted the plane which is refueling the Question Mark and supplying food to her passengers. The telegram was tucked into a parcel of sandwiches and successfully passed down to the cabin of the Question Mark as it continued its flight.

Mr. Naulty's message was a New Year's greeting to Capt. Eaker and the other flyers on the airplane.

House Member Also Asks About Drinking

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (P)—A request for an explanation by the War Department of the number of suicides reported in the Army during the past year was made in the House today by Representative La Guardia, Republican, New York, who said the Army Surgeon-General in testimony before a House subcommittee indicated there were four times as many in the service as in civilian life.

"Also, there may be something wrong with the discipline in the Army," he added. "The report shows that there were 4147 admissions to the hospital for alcoholism. If there were that many cases of alcoholism, there must have been 160,000 cases of regular drinking."

Commander Eva remained at the headquarters until late tonight engaged in further conference with the members of the Army to work out a program for reform of the organization.

The headquarters staff revealed a dramatic manner in which Mirt small Booth and his disgruntled wife are now of the rift in the organization to the aged and sick.

During the care with which the wife of his daughter passed the word to him that he was lying helpless in a hospital bed, he immediately realized the gravity of the information. He suddenly found himself faced with the possibility of removal by authority, many of whom had been given to positions of responsibility. He also could realize the fact that the fortunes of his wife and children might pass from his control to the control of other officers.

It is not that the 72-year-old Booth would naturally consider a whole week of his life was wasted. He has been an active member since at the age of 18, in his organization work under the guidance of his father, Gen. George Booth, who was then the Army chief of staff at 24, or among the growing outposts of the Army until he succeeded his father as commander-in-chief.

ARMY BILL HAS CASH FOR STATE

Los Angeles Harbor Would Get $230,600

Sauetelle Soldiers' Home Down for $1,231,000

Many California Projects May Receive Funds

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (Exclusive)—The War Department appropriation bill reported to the House today carries $230,600 for Los Angeles Harbor, most of which is to be spent for dredging operations in the west basin.

Automobiles must not be washed with water, the Mayor further ordains, contending that this must be the will of heaven, since it sent insufficient rain to fill the municipal reservoirs and then the snow came to freeze up the small quantity left.

Other California items are:
San Pablo Bay and Mare Island Strait, for deepening the upper end of the strait $125,000; for dredging the breakwaters at Crescent City Harbor, $240,500; for obtaining a right of way for levee along the San Joaquin River, $335,000; for food control of the Sacramento River, $100,000.

INCREASE MADE

The Sacramento River appropriation is an increase of $600,000 over the sum provided for in the current fiscal year and represents the start of the new apportionment whereby the government is to take one-sixth of the cost of the project. Rather than one-sixth as heretofore. As an adjustment fund, the measure also carries $4,370,000 in refunds to state and local contributors to the project who the general lines ill.

The measure contains a number of appropriations for Hawaii, including an unnamed sum for installation of sixteen-inch guns and for completion of emplacements for 240-millimeter howitzers at Oahu. The Hawaiian defenses also get $100,000.

Other Hawaiian items are $275,000 for the breakwater project at Kahului Harbor, $225,000 for completion of the breakwater at Hilo Harbor, and $300,000 for dredging operations and breakwater construction a Nawiliwili Harbor.

CASH FOR BARRACKS

An appropriation of $150,000 is provided for construction of non-commissioned officers' quarters at March Field, California.

Other army corps items include $15,000 for an addition to the utilities building at Alcatraz, California; $40,000 for completing the Presidio at San Francisco; $940,000 for barracks at Schofield Field, Hawaii; $50,000 for barracks, $300,000 for non-commissioned officers' quarters and $66,000 for officers' quarters at Wheeler Field, Hawaii.

Calling for the expenditure of $435,428,415 by the War Department during the next fiscal year, the measure also provides for a regular annual supply bill to come before the House this session, four having been passed before the holidays.

The total, providing $228,338,615 for military defense and $201,080 for non-military purposes, represent an increase of $33,111,774 over the current fiscal year appropriation and an increase of $326,808 over budget estimates.

ARMY PAY BOOSTED

The largest military item in the bill is $12,550,368 for pay of the Army. This is an increase of $3,215,500 over its year's pay fund and is recommended to take care of additional second lieutenants, for the air corps, advancement of officers to higher pay periods, longevity increases, and retired list expansion. The measure contemplates a change in the Army from 116,750 to 117,750, but will raise the officer strength from 11,750 to approximately 12,000.

In the nonmilitary provisions, $50,000,000 is included for maintenance and improvement of more than 500 rivers and harbors works while $30,000,000, an increase of $20,000,000, is provided for Mississippi flood control. An additional $800,000, previously authorized as an emergency fund, is appropriated for repair or maintenance of flood control structures on the Mississippi's tributaries, and $1,000,000 is provided for flood control on the Sacramento River, in California. A new item of $4,370,000 is included as a result of a recommendation by the California Debris Commission that the Federal government share one-third instead of one-sixth of the expense of the Sacramento project. For operation of dam at 2 at Muscle Shoals, $100,000 is provided.

The air corps appropriation, an increase of $8,730,121 over current funds, will enable the Army to purchase 297 planes next year for the regular branch, organized reserves and National Guard, two-thirds of which would go to the latter and be paid for out of guard funds. This will bring the five-year construction program up to within 106 planes of the total planned.

BILL LISTING FUNDS GETS SENATE YEA

Four Departments Given Appropriations as House Total Receives Addition

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (AP)—The Senate today passed the bill carrying funds for next year's expenditures by the departments of State, Commerce, Justice and Labor, adding $6,640 to the $111,832,887 voted by the House.

The Senate added $10,000 for the Alcatraz project, $23,640 for aircraft in commerce, $15,000 for increased service to the citrus-fruit industry in exports, and $10,000 for transportation of foreign-service officers.

This is the third of the nine regular appropriation bills to go through the Senate.

A proposal by Senator Hayden, Democrat, Arizona, to add $250,000 to the bill to cover salaries of additional immigration officials was voted down.

SENATOR SUFFERS FROM BREAKDOWN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (AP)—Establishment of a United States Court of Administrative Justice to expedite the hearing and determination of suits against the government was proposed in a bill today by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska.

Jurisdiction over claims against the government now exercised by the Court of Claims, the Court of Customs Appeals and the Board of Tax Appeals, as well as certain powers now vested in the Senate Court of the District of Columbia would be transferred to the new court. It would be composed of a chief justice and twelve associates appointed by the President.

Senator Norris, who is chairman of the Judiciary Committee, explained that he offered the bill primarily to provoke discussion of its merits, especially among members of the bar.

Census Committee Warned to Act in Two Weeks

Rules Group Otherwise Will Present Measure

Senate Leaders Also Seek to Speed Decision

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (Exclusive)—House leaders moved today to force passage of reapportionment legislation. Representative Tilson of Connecticut, Republican floor leader, and Representative Snell of New York, chairman of the Rules Committee, buttonholed Representative Penn of Connecticut, and gave him notice that if the Census Committee, of which he is chairman, does not report out a reapportionment bill within two weeks the Rules Committee will bring out a measure on the floor.

Penn immediately called a meeting of members for tomorrow and it is expected that a long-deferred action looking to a reallocation of House seats among the States, as required by a Constitutional mandate, will be taken at the session.

The Senate wants to embark on a ten-year program, which he believes is feasible and a tangible form of relief to agriculture. Coyotes, wolves, mountain lions, bobcats, bears and rodents are named among the guinea pigs to be used upon stock. The committee is called also a carrier of rabies.

Of the appropriation, $96,000 would be for controlling rodents.

CONFIDENCE FELT

Earlier in the day Representative Snell went to the White House and discussed reapportionment with President Coolidge, saying afterward he is confident a bill will be passed.

Representative Snell said at the White House that he deems a special session of Congress after March 4 "inevitable." He said he had no objection to Coolidge's bill and will express the same view to President-elect Hoover shortly after the latter's return Sunday. The extra session, he declared, should be devoted solely to farm relief and tariff revision.

Representative Snell said at the White House that he deems a special session of Congress after March 4 "inevitable." He said he had no objection to Coolidge's bill and will express the same view to President-elect Hoover shortly after the latter's return Sunday. The extra session, he declared, should be devoted solely to farm relief and tariff revision.

Harry Symes Lehr Led Smart Set of East in Bizarre
Pranks During Gay Nineties

BALTIMORE, Jan. 3. (P)—Harry Symes Lehr, well known for many years in Baltimore, New York and Newport society, died today at Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he had been a patient for several weeks, suffering from a brain disorder.

From obscure social origin, Lehr, son of a one-time German Consul at Baltimore, sprang almost overnight into the position of social arbiter of Baltimore, Newport and New York in the late '90s. His eccentricities and bizarre pranks, which made him a favorite of wealthy social leaders, made him widely known as "the successor of Ward McAllister" and "the P. T. Barnum of the smart set."

MARRIED IN 1901

In June, 1901, Lehr married Mrs. John Vinton Dahlgren, a widow and formerly a dress designer. Their marriage in St. Patrick's Cathedral was a brilliant event. All of the ushers were wealthy social leaders. On the same day in Grace Church James A. Stillman married Anne Urquhart Potter.

Several years after the marriage the Lehr couple moved and took up residence in Paris. They gave brilliant fetes and Lehr occupied much the same position he had abandoned in America.

When the war broke out Lehr devoted all his time to hospital work for wounded soldiers.

NEW DELHI (India) Jan. 3. (P)—The future constitution of the great Indian empire was the subject of four native meetings in India over the Christian holidays, but no attempt was made toward co-operation with the home government's Simon Commission. Reform Commission.

Several years after the marriage the Lehr couple moved and took up residence in Paris. They gave brilliant fetes and Lehr occupied much the same position he had abandoned in America.

When the war broke out Lehr devoted all his time to hospital work for wounded soldiers.

The Moslem conference, chiefly was concerned with strengthening safeguards for the Moslems in any reforms, while the conference and later national congress of the All Parties body favored conferring of dominion status within a year. The All-India Moslem Federation met at Allahabad and favored "immediate dominion status and a boycott of the Simon commission.

The All-India Moslem Conference opened here last Monday, bringing together Moslems from all classes and sections of India. The demand was that the Simon Commission be evolved should safeguard Moslem culture. 1929 will reward careful savers

Liquid Assets

In order to maintain our assets at the maximum of liquidity we have voluntarily written down the Furniture and Fixtures and Real Estate accounts out of surplus to nominal value ($1 each).

Strong Cash Position

Evidenced by a voluntary reserve of over $1,200,000 in interest bearing certificates of deposit in 75 California banks which we maintain in addition to other cash on hand.

Conservative Loan Policy

Our funds are loaned in accordance with the strict provisions of the law and our own even more rigid restrictions. Loans are secured by thoroughly protected first liens on improved real estate in 75 California cities. Aggregate appraisal value of this real estate as determined by the company's conservative policy exceeds 2½ times the amount of the loan. Regular installments payments on all loans are a further safety factor.

Open Bank Credit

Since bank loans would be an obligation coming before our obligation to savers, it is our policy not to avail ourselves of our bank credit. We have no bank indebtedness.

Conserved Earnings

The Pacific States Savings' policy is to conserve its earnings as demonstrated by the fact that its surplus, reserves and undivided profits are over twice its guaranteed capital stock.

SAFE SAVING

CIVIL AVIATION CALLED REALITY

Secretary Whiting Points to Great Strides Made

Soon to be Integral Part of American Industry

Removed Definitely from Realm of Experiment

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3. (AP)—Commercial aeronautics promises to be established as an integral part of American industry and transportation during 1929 in the opinion of Secretary of Commerce Whiting.

Discussing the government's program of co-operation for the coming year in the field of civil aviation the Secretary today predicted a number of improvements including the extensions of airways, the increased installation of lights and other air-navigation aids and the experimental works of the Bureau of Standards in aiding manufacturers to improve power plants and increase stability.

"Commercial aeronautics in the United States has been definitely removed from the realm of experimentation and established as a fact," Mr. Whiting said.

"Perhaps we can best visualize the present status of the industry," he continued, "from available statistics which show licensees granted to 5200 pilots with 10,000 student pilots in training; airports of all classes numbering 1600; 9700 planes operating; 45,000 miles flown daily; 35,000 passengers carried annually; operation of regular schedules beginning 1928; air mail averaging about 470,000 pounds a month; 6000 miles of improved airways in operation with an additional 4600 miles proposed for the near future; production of aeronautical equipment expected to double that 1927 output valued at $21,000,000."

The aviation field is continuing to attract a large amount of private capital for new enterprises, the Secretary said, and has drawn the attention of some of America's ablest men. In view of the situation he declared that the Commerce Department has planned an enlarged program for the early months of 1929 to guide the promotion and regulation of commercial flying.

TONE ON STOCK MARKET HEAVY

Total sales were about $100,000 shares.

The increase of $238,675,000 in Federal Reserve brokered loans, announced after the close, was even larger than it had been during the month of the decline of the past three weeks. The compilation disclosed that the loans "for others" decreased by $156,000,000 as corporations and foreign banks withdrew funds to meet the year-end requirements, but that the "others" were up $100,000,000 in the account for out-of-town banks by putting more than $500,000,000 into the market.

BROKERS' LOANS UP

The increase over November 30 of $40,000,500 in the total of brokers' loans as of December 31, as reported by the New York Stock Exchange, was a disheartening development, as it established a new high record of nearly $640,000,000, showing that the effect of early December had been more than offset in this compilation, which is more inclusive than the Federal Reserve's.

The reserve bank announced an increase of 1-1/2 of 1 per cent in the buying rate for brokers' loans, in accordance with an effort to provide a better market for this form of commercial credit. Outside of developments in the credit situation there was little in the day's news to influence the market. An increase in the price of copper, which brought it in line with the domestic price, encouraged further sharp advances in copper shares, while the beginning of argument of the St. Louis and O'Fallon case gave impetus to the upturn in the rally.

COPPER STOCKS UP

Greene-Cananea Copper jumped nearly 10 points to a record high, while Anaconda, Nevada and American Smelting touched new highs for a year or more. Pennsylvania Railroad and Boston and Maine again sold at the highest prices in while New York Central and Union Pacific, New Haven, International Nickel, and National Biscuit sold up about 10 and 8 points, respectively.

General Electric encountered heavy profit taking after yesterday's 24-point advance, and sold down 15 points to 10 off. The loss of 15 points in the last moment of the main Case Threshing lost about 14 points. Montgomery Ward, Canadian Pacific, Allied Chemical and Wright Aero about 8 each. Motors turned heavy, Chrysler and Packard losing 2 to 3 points each.

The commodity markets were quiet. Cotton encountered liquidation during the session, but rallied at the close. Wheat eased on increase in the visible supply, while corn improved.

Foreign exchanges held barely steady, sterling easing slightly.

SNOW MANTLES FRANCE

Even South Suffers From Cold and Biting North Wind

PARIS, Jan. 3. (AP)—Winter prevailed throughout all France today, even the sunny south not being spared. The rigors of the cold weather were made more harsh by a fierce biting northeast wind.

The whole Provencal region was mantled with snow, making communications difficult by rail and highway. The thermometer is continuing to drop.

As a result of a heavy snowstorm in the Alpine districts, all roads to Paris were delayed eight hours.

Toulouse, Montauban, Albi, Montpellier and Auch and most of the towns in the Pyrenees are covered with a heavy coat of snow.

TRAIN ORDERS INVESTIGATED

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Jan. 3. (AP)—Investigation of the transmission of train orders by dispatchers to trainmen was ordered today by the Arizona Corporation Commission. The inquiry was set for the 21st inst.

BUTLER TO RULE
BRIBERY TRIAL

Los Angeles County Jurist Will Have Keyes Case

Legal Fight to Open
Monday Morning

Great Array of Talent for State and Defense

John J. Butler, presiding judge in the Superior Court of Marin County, was selected yesterday to try the case of former Distri-cutor James J. Keyes and six others on charges of bribery and conspiracy in the case. The trial is called Monday.

Daniel Boone, son, a boy of fourteen years old, was one of the men who came to the hearing.

Appointment of the naming of the trial was made by President of the Superior Court, who also designated Department of the old Courthouse as the hearing.

After the appointment of the Judge, the trial was adjourned.

United States Commissioner of Justice, Francis Callaway, said that the trial would not be a matter of importance, but that Judge Boone had been appointed to the trial.

On summer afternoons the men went out of the fort. They went to the river, and got out of their boats, and the water was sent to the fort. They felt safe.

They laughed and talked and splashed in the water with their paddles.

Thirty-five Jailed in Wholesale Round-up of Asserted Bootleggers

LIQUORS WORTH $50,000 SEIZED

Five Autos Confiscated by Police Squads

Rum Sellers Nabbed When They Move Stocks

Seven Women Arrested as Raiders Get Busy

Yesterday was "Blue Thursday" for Los Angeles bootleggers. At the completion of the twenty-four-hour period ending at noon members of the police department dedicated to enforcement of the liquor laws within the city limits achieved a record never before achieved for the same period of time.

Their reports showed twenty-eight men and seven women arrested, 116 gallons of wine, 677 gallons of so-called whisky, eighty-six gallons of rum, 151 gallons of beer and forty-eight quarts of gin and five automobiles confiscated. Total retail valuation of the liquor at a nominal per quart figure was placed at $50,000. This record did not include numerous arrests for drunkenness in automobiles and on public and private property.

CONDUCT RAIDS

Outstanding in the city-wide drive against lawless violators were three raids conducted by the police gun squads under Acting Captain Tom Hayes. These raids netted the majority of the total liquor confiscated. Other raids and arrests were made by members of the vice division, working under Deputy Chief Plummer and Acting Captain Louis.

The unusual activity was attributed to Chief Davis to the fact that many bootleggers, hibernating during the recent holiday season, attempted to "come out into the open" with their illicit wares in a belief that, because of the Christmas and New Year's Eve quietness, they would not be disturbed.

One of the most spectacular of the raids was made by Detective Lieutenant Harry Coddell and Raynor, 42, Salvadore Sorenson, 41, and Phillip Torres, 26, were arrested.

A raid was made at 783 North Van Ness avenue, where Officer Beale and a detail of men from the gun squads, with a quantity of red liquor at 4720 Lemon Grove avenue; Mrs. S. Tanaka, 26, for having four quarts of sake in a coffee pot in a cafe at 369 East First street, and Mrs. Pauline McDowell, 26, for having 104 gallons of beer, 41, and Phillip Torres, 26, were arrested.

WOMEN ARRESTED

The women arrested for possession of liquor are Mrs. Peter Gersbach, 50, 422 Galardino street, with a ten-quart jug and one gallon of whisky; Mrs. Eva Coddell, 26, for having one pint of whisky and one gallon of wine in her four bin at 1124 North Twenty-fifth street; Mrs. Eva Coddell, 26, for having one gallon of "moonshine" in her home at 5888 and Oliver Kramer, 22, were taken into custody and the cars confiscated.

Following hours of surveillance other members of the gun squad conducted their raids in the Pacific, Frank Lieners, 42, Salvadore Sorenson, 41, and Phillip Torres, 26, were arrested.

LOADED WITH LIQUORS

In a delivery truck bearing a cleaner-and-dyer's legend, it is equipped with shelves for pint, quart and gallon bottles, they reported finding 128 gallons of whisky and alcohol. In a large sedan they discovered 100 gallons more, and in a third and smaller sedan 100 gallons. Sam Cohen, 23, years of age,

Bruins to Mix with Dakotans

Strong Midwest Quintet

Slight Favorite to Trim U.C.L.A. Tonight

BY BOB RAY

Fans who like their basketball with an intersectional flavor will get a chance to appear their appetites tonight by trundling out to the Olympic Auditorium, where Coach George Weller's U.C.L.A. Bruins will attempt to trim the invading University of North Dakota squad in what figures to be a hectic battle.

The Flickertails, as the North Dakotans have been dubbed, are one of the strongest five in the Midwest, where basketball seems to be a religion instead of a sport during the winter months, and will be slight favorites to take the Bruins into camp tonight.

Coach C. W. Letich has a first five composed of six-footers, the measure that the North Dakotans will be able to make the jump most of the time, which is quite an advantage.

Those who have seen the Flickertails in action report them as a snappy passing team that has

Nurmi to Get Permission to Race

NEW YORK, Jan. 3. (AP) — Paavo Nurmi filed application with the Amateur Athletic Union today for a registration card permitting him to compete in this country. Nurmi will be interrogated as to his intentions by the registration committee of the Metropolitan A.A.U., to which his application was referred by Daniel T. Ferris, national secretary. Nurmi's credentials were satisfactory, Ferris said, adding that no obstacle is foreseen to granting the Finn an amateur card.

THREE "DIVOTEERS" GO SOUTH

This trio of golfing gentlemen will attempt to go "south" with a portion of the $2500 offered in purses over the San Diego Country Club today, where the first eighteen holes of the seventy-two-hole San Diego open will be played. So far the three have failed to go "south" with anything approaching a purse, but they are about due to click. Introducing Bobby Cruickshank, the "Wee" Scott who won the 1927 Los Angeles $10,000 open; Eddie Los of Pasadena, and one of the Southland's finest golfers, and Charlie Guest of the Tam O'Shanter Golf Club of Detroit.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 3. (Exclusive) — Sir Walter Hagen, British open champion, with Leo Diegel, national P.G.A. titlist, are expected to furnish the "piece de resistance" of the seventy-two-hole San Diego $2500 open golf tournament which starts tomorrow morning over the San Diego Country Club course, at Chula Vista.

The Argus Country Club "pro," who is a "rare find" in Hagen's professional golfer's crown at Baltimore last October, also won the last San Diego open. A victory for Hagen would therefore be doubly sweet.

Sir Walter and Diegel will enter the tournament in the "spirit" of physical condition, Lee, who has been practicing diligently for the Los Angeles $10,000 open, passed by all tournaments to date, and will be making his first start in a professional tournament this season in the local open.

Hagen, after winning the Long Beach $2500 open, decided to stay out of the La Jolla tournament which wound up today. The "Half-Moon" sound aboard Cliff Duran's (Beau) Guest, Hagen and Diegel, however, will

Tom Moore and Eddie Gill Headline Hollywood Fight Program at Legion Stadium

MIDDLEWEIGHTS CLASH TONIGHT

Two Sock Artists Collide in Film City Feature

Homer Sheridan Forced Out by Spanish Demon

Heavyweights to Swap Slugs in Semi-Wind-up Go

Tom Moore and Eddie Gill may be the two of the outstanding middleweights of the country, but if they live up to their reputations and fight as they did last year, they will be a few knockdowns in the main event at the Hollywood Legion Stadium.

The professor, who holds down a chair in the economics department at the University of Illinois, has a very unique system whereby he figures out his leaders each year. In the course of the season he keeps tab on over 100 teams. At the end of the schedule he takes the conferences, for example, and divides them into two groups—those teams which have won more games than they lost being in the major group and those with more defeats than victories being in the minor group.

Victory of a team in the major group over a team in the same section brings thirty points to the winner and fifteen to the loser. But victory for a major team over a minor team would only count twenty for the winner and ten for the loser.

Southern California and Illinois are the only schools which have made their first eleven teams for four out of the five years he has been awarding the title. Of the 1928 year's race he has this to say:

"As the season was played Southern California had to display the ability of a national champion to keep its slate clean."

Notre Dame with the Four Horsemen won the Rummel Cup in 1924, Dartmouth with Oberlander in 1925, Stanford in 1926, Illinois in 1927 and U.S.C. in 1928.

RAGGED FOOTBALL

PRO. DICKINSON is a keen student of football, but he was not at all impressed by the New Year's Day game.

He says the play was entirely too loose for teams of the high caliber of Georgia Tech and California, and that Tech exhibited a woeful weakness against forward passes and that California displayed poor management by not taking advantage of this weakness earlier in the game.

He feels sorry for both Roy Riegels and Georgia Tech on the play which won the game for Tech. He says that any later which might accrue to the Golden Terriers for its victory will always be dimmed by memory of Riegels' famous run to his own goal line—and the subsequent safety.

In other words he feels that the game will go down in history not as Georgia Tech's victory but as the "Riegels game."

RIEGELS HAS COMPANY

HOWEVER, there is no reason for putting it all on Riegels. Had either Georgia Tech or California scored another touchdown the Riegels incident would have been played down—not up—in all the stories about the game.

And as a matter of fact Riegels was not the only benighted one in the big bowl on New Year's Day. When the California captain-elect tore out for his own goal line there were thousands of persons in the stands who were as much bewildered as the racing Bear warrior.

It took the boys in the press stands several seconds to get straight on the play themselves, and even the boys on the Georgia Tech bench—close to the sidelines where the play started—weren't sure what it was all about.

Even the coaches get twisted on football rules and quirks—so why blame a college boy who was out there trying his best.

For example, Chick Mehan, returning from the game, prepared to write a criticism of the referee for bringing the ball out to the 20-yard line instead of the 30-yard line following the safety. The New York University coach got twisted on the rule. Two years ago it was the 20-yard line, but now it's the 30-yard stripe again. Another argument for leaving the rules alone. Mehan had the old 30-yard line pulled on his team last fall, and he thought he was right.

Two years ago Albert Exendine, coached his Occidental boys to go tearing down the field on a free kick and to knock the daylight out of the receiver regardless of a signal for a fair catch.

Exendine had read the rules wrong. The Occidental boys were eligible on the outside kick to take the ball out of the receiver's hands—if possible—but the minute he had obtained possession after a fair catch the Tigers were in for a 15-yard penalty if they tackled him. And that's what they got—in a game with Hawaii.

ANOTHER OPINION

CHARLEY KEPPEL, who did the heavy announcing at the Rose Bowl New Year's Day, says he has been panned for not calling to Riegels that he was in reverse gear.

Sir Keppele says he thought of it, but he was so entranced in watching the play he couldn't get his facile tongue to wagging.

However, he joins Coaches Warner, Jones, Mehan and Hanley in saying that Referee Dana pulled a blower on Lumpkin's file which Los picked up and raced 60 yards to the goal line for a supposed touchdown. Charley says his seat of vantage was on the California side near the players' bench, that Dana blew the whistle before the forward progress was stopped and that he was not in position to see the ball rolling along the ground.

Keppele says the ball took two bounces before Los scooped it up and was on his way. The silver-tongued announcer says Dana was not behind the play, but way over to the left side.

However, there is nothing to be done about the matter, and the campaign to win a "moral victory" for California should see a lesson in Coach Niles Fries' criticism.

"It was just one of those things," said Niles. "I have no criticism to offer."

COMPLETE DRAWINGS FOR L. A. OPEN NET TOURNEY

Officials in charge of the 1929 Los Angeles open tennis championships, to open preliminary matches Sunday morning at Sixty-second and Harvard streets, completed the drawings of the men's and women's singles events last night.

Only men's singles contests will be on the Sunday's program this week-end, women's singles opening Saturday. Entries in the double-bounce events will not close until next Saturday. The Sun Dixie, all-curtain conference football end; Mark Reeve, also a giant who worked out for the Olympic team last year and works with Ingersoll at center; Russel Magley and George Cooper, among the crack coaches, will be seen in action in the Hollywood gym tonight.

Kearney will depend upon George Wolfman, Wiley Hattier, Morton and Brinkman as first-string substitutes. Probable starting line-ups for tonight's game, are as follows:

SEALS TRAIN AT MONTEREY SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3. (P.)—George Putnam and Charles Graham, of the San Francisco Seals baseball club, completed arrangements today to hold spring training for the players in Monterey. Putnam and Graham will leave for Monterey tomorrow to lay their plans for the training season.

Coch Eddie Klenholz's Occidental cagers and the crack Whittier Poets under Ray Johns, both of which quintets died for the Southern Conference championship last year, will open their 1929 race for that title tomorrow evening when the Tigers meet Caltech at Oxy and the Poets jaunt to La Verne for a tilt with the Loparites.

SHOULD DEFEAT THE ENGINES, but none too handily. The visitors have some crack talent in Capt. Al Cramer, whose team-mates have all returned but Joe Joe Balmer, off to the Midwest.

Whittier lost a pair of classy guards but has many veterans and substitutes and some talent from the past year's fresh quintet. La Verne will be weak this year, so the Poets are expected to romp over their foes.

SAN PEDRO FIVE WINS MIAMI (Ariz.) Jan. 3. (P.)—"Swede" Sonoren led the University of Arizona quintet to a 43-26 victory over the Miami All-Stars here last night. It was the second win for Arizona since they started their barnstorming trip over the State.

COACH EDDIE KLENHOLZ, Occidental cagers and the crack Whittier Poets under Ray Johns, both of which quintets died for the Southern Conference championship last year, will open their 1929 race for that title tomorrow evening when the Tigers meet Caltech at Oxy and the Poets jaunt to La Verne for a tilt with the Loparites.

SHOULD DEFEAT THE ENGINES, but none too handily. The visitors have some crack talent in Capt. Al Cramer, whose team-mates have all returned but Joe Joe Balmer, off to the Midwest.

Whittier lost a pair of classy guards but has many veterans and substitutes and some talent from the past year's fresh quintet. La Verne will be weak this year, so the Poets are expected to romp over their foes.

SAN PEDRO FIVE WINS MIAMI (Ariz.) Jan. 3. (P.)—"Swede" Sonoren led the University of Arizona quintet to a 43-26 victory over the Miami All-Stars here last night. It was the second win for Arizona since they started their barnstorming trip over the State.

SEALS TRAIN AT MONTEREY SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3. (P.)—George Putnam and Charles Graham, of the San Francisco Seals baseball club, completed arrangements today to hold spring training for the players in Monterey. Putnam and Graham will leave for Monterey tomorrow to lay their plans for the training season.

It Alberta Vaughn, screen actress, has broken her engagement to William Lait, Jr., member of a wealthy Pittsburgh family, her parents in Hollywood know nothing about it, according to a statement yesterday from her stepmother, Bruce Preston.

Messages received from New York carried the news that it is all off between Miss Vaughn and Lait.

The betrothal was announced sometime ago. Miss Vaughn is in New York with her sister, Ada Mae Vaughn, making a picture, and soon is expected to return. Mr. and Mrs. Preston were seriously injured a week ago in an auto accident, and Alberta's father still is in the Hollywood Hospital. Preston was taken to his home from the hospital yesterday.

Mitchell, it is stated, formerly was connected with the International Harvester Company in the East, coming here ten years ago.

Train Proves Fruitless;
Hunt Goes on Vigorously

Drifting sands of the Mojave Desert and Death Valley apparently have hidden all traces of Harry Palmer, asserted train wrecker and abductor, according to reports yesterday from posse searching for him at different points.

From Las Vegas, Nev., came a telegram from Acting Captain Alton, chief of the Los Angeles Police Department, deciding a clue he had followed into Nevada proved worthless.

From San Bernardino county deputy sheriffs and Santa Fe Railroad detectives, engaged in the search near Barstow in the vicinity where the train was wrecked, came similar reports that they have lost the trail of the accused man.

Chief of Detectives Cline of the local police declared, however, that the search will be pushed as vigorously as ever. Palmer is supposed to be traveling in an old automobile, taking with him young Richard Grant of Los Angeles, whom he is said to have lured from his home on San Fernando Road December 22, last.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

After a lot of talk pro and con, both in the newspapers and in the studio, it has been decided at last that "Young Simpson" will be Charles Rogers' next starring vehicle for Paramount. It will be filmed as a 100 per cent dialogue production, deserves B. P. Schulberg, who made the announcement.

John Farrow, and moreover the loss of two brothers for the same girl, Doris Anderson is making the adaptation.

At present Rogers is at work on "Gone to Harmony," in which he is appearing with Nancy Carroll, Jack La Rue, Hayes Gearhart and Harry Green.

Noted Players for "Squall" First National is no piker when it comes to signing up a cast for "The Squall," a talking picture, adapted from the stage play of the same name, which Ray Ricketts is producing and Alexander Korndorff directing.

Two important names were added to the cast yesterday. They are Richard Tucker, who will take the adult male lead, and Nancy Carroll Mrs. Knott, to play the juvenile.

The names on the cast already announced give the production a genuine all-star flavor, including Sam Pitti, Loretta Young, Myrna Loy and Alice Joyce.

Jess Clegg Signs

That noted Spanish actor, Jose Clegg, who recently appeared for the first time on the American screen in "Dobie Gillis' Revenger," is to have the lead in "The Squall," a Fox picture, we learned yesterday. He was signed for a picture to be directed by Edward C. Cuthbert, not yet titled.

Clegg was leading man in the famous "Beneath the Surface" company in England where he played classic roles. He came to this country a few months ago, since which time he has appeared here both on the stage and screen.

Sally Blane With F.B.O.

That highly young actress, Sally Blane, isn't to be confined to one studio or another, herself, or, as she has been doing.

F.B.O. has signed Miss Blane on a long-term contract for both talking and silent pictures. She is to be a member of the F.B.O. stock company, but will probably be featured in the picture in which she appears.

Miss Blane has already opposite Tom Mix in two pictures for F.B.O. and has also appeared in other films of that company.

Universal Reverses Contract

Universal has taken up the option on Mary Nolan's contract, due to her excellent work in her last two pictures for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, to which she was loaned.

Miss Nolan was reported at one time as wishing to buy her contract from Universal and to sign with M.G.M. direct. However, this idea seems to have been dropped.

The actress has been under contract of Universal for quite a period of time, but has made only one picture, viz., "The Foreign Legion," with Norman Kerry. The rest of the time she has been borrowed by other studios.

Miss Nolan's next effort for Universal will be the leading role in "Come Across," by Willis Weller. This will not be commenced for some time, however, and in the meantime the actress will probably be loaned to some other organization.

Beryl Roberts Is It

When Chesterfield Productions started to cast "Just Off Broadway," a The-Art production, they looked about for the most likely young actress they could find to play the second lead in the picture.

That's how they happened to settle on Beryl Roberts, who had been appearing opposite George Walsh in pictures made in the East.

Gretchen Hartman Signs

Gretchen Hartman stepped out of the family circle wherein she has been shining as the wife of Alan Hale during the past few years, and re-entered pictures, nothing, it appears, can stop her.

She still shines as the wife of Alan Hale, but also her movie success continues. She was signed yesterday by Warner Brothers to play a speaking role in "The Three Musketeers" and the "Girl," which Howard Bretherton is to direct.

Miss Hartman was formerly a Fox star, but later was married to Hale and retired from the screen for a time.

Reed Howes as Fifer

That intrepid fifer in the interests of screen art, Reed Howes, is to continue on his serial way for Educational Pictures.

Howes will make six more aviation pictures for Educational during the coming year, so successful have his former pictures been.

Universal's South Sea Film

Very little has Universal said about its South Sea picture, "Up the Southern Cross," directed by Edward L. Cuthbert. The fact remains, however, that Collier made a silent picture in the wilds of New Zealand, with a native Maori cast, remaining over there some eight months, and returning a few weeks ago.

Now Universal is putting in sound effects, including war cries, etc. The film is said to be a highly interesting one, including as it does, native Maori dances, fighting methods, etc.

Veteran Traces Grouches Back to Shakespeare

Robert McWade asserts that it was not the role of the editor in "The Fourth Estate," as some fancy, that started him on his career of grouchy-father roles.

"It was long before that," says the actor, who heads the cast of "Daddies" at the Hollywood Playhouse. "It began when I portrayed Polonius in 'Hamlet' with the Henry V. Donnelly company at the Music Hill Theater in New York. That classic old windbag, full of sententiousness and argumentation, was the real start of my stage 'grouches.' Polonius is a crusty as well as a sullen fellow, and I've always dated back my present career for Paramount."

RULING DEFINES CITIES' RIGHTS

Alhambra Wins Fight for Water in San Gabriel

Court Holds Municipalities Mere Agents of State

One, Therefore, Can Go Into Bounds of Another

Municipalities are only agencies of the State government and their rights may be made subservient to the rights of others, according to an opinion handed down yesterday by Superior Judge Yankwich in deciding the lawsuit of the city of Alhambra against the city of San Gabriel.

In its action the city of Alhambra sought a writ of mandate to compel the city of San Gabriel to allow it to lay a pipe through Longden Drive in San Gabriel for the purpose of carrying water from a well Alhambra proposes to dig on water-bearing land it owns in the corporate limits of San Gabriel. The ruling of the court is in favor of the city of Alhambra.

OPINION SUMMARIZED

In his opinion summary Judge Yankwich said that ordinarily a municipality does not have the power to act extraneously. Nor can a municipality invade the right of self-government of another municipality by exercising municipal functions outside of its territorial limits. In furthering its own interest it may confer on it the right to enter on and use the public streets of another municipality.

In its complaint the city of Alhambra asserted that it had constructed and equipped a well and in question a well capable of yielding 200 inches of water, constant production, at an expenditure of $20,694.41.

It was pointed out that the water from the well of the city of Alhambra is inadequate to supply the present and future needs of consumers; that it desires to erect a pumping plant at the well, and that to avail itself of the water it desired to lay 800 feet of pipe on Longden Drive.

PERMIT REFUSED

On May 3, 1927, the city of Alhambra applied to San Gabriel for permission to lay the pipe line, ten feet from the center of the curb for 840 as a guarantee of performance of requirements of San Gabriel.

Through its officers, the complainant further cited, the city of San Gabriel refused to grant the permit and threatened to interfere with any attempt on the part of Alhambra to lay the pipe without first obtaining a permit.

A writ of mandate was asked by Alhambra to compel the Board of Trustees of San Gabriel to issue a permit for the laying of the pipe line.

Judge Yankwich issued the writ, directing the San Gabriel authorities to allow the laying of the pipe, at the same time commanding the city of Alhambra to comply with all the ordinances of the city of San Gabriel relative to the opening of streets and to execute a bond of guarantee for faithful performance of the sum of $1500.

EXTENT OF POWER

"The power of a municipality," Judge Yankwich says in his decision, "to act outside of its boundaries is dependent entirely upon legislative grants. There is a power which does not exist unless expressly granted, necessarily or fairly implied in or incident to the powers expressly granted, or essential to the declared objects and purposes of the municipality."

"One must, in the interest of the right of self-government which is at the basis of our municipal government system power to act extraneously will be denied in the absence of expressed authority. Express authority will be required in all cases except where it is necessary, as far as an incident to other powers expressly granted. While the streets all belong to the State, the regulation in the manner of their use is a matter of much greater concern to the inhabitants of cities than to the people of the State at large. Cities, therefore, were wisely delegated to the various municipalities."

RIGHT OF STATE

"Such control, however, is subject to the right of the State to impose conditions or restrictions thereon. Applying these principles to the fact in the incident case it is apparent that the Legislature may empower a municipality to act outside of the limits of its territorial limits that may be necessary or convenient for the establishment, maintenance and operation of any public utility. This clearly is the authority for the ac-

HINT HEARD OF ARSON IN TWO FIRES

FATHER DIED AS CITIZEN, COURT RULES

Theater Owner No Longer "Man Without Country" Due to Judge's Act

Investigation So Far Has Failed to Develop Clews in Blazes at U.C.L.A.

Believed to be of incendiary origin, two fires early yesterday morning on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles disrupted university activities, one fire destroying California Hall, a two-story frame structure housing the chemistry laboratories, with estimated damage of $50,000. The second fire occurred in the university auditorium in Millsapah Hall, the main building on the campus where a back-drop curtain was discovered afire.

The fire in California Hall was discovered about 3 a.m. by Charles Hutson, university night watchman, who turned in the alarm. By the time the firemen arrived there, the fire was too far under way to save the building. Because of the highly combustible and explosive character of the materials contained in the laboratories, there was a great deal of difficulty in subduing the blaze, which continued for more than two hours.

The cause of the California Hall fire was investigated yesterday by Capt. Enoch Polfe, of the bureau of investigation of the fire department and university officials, but no direct evidence of arson was discovered.

Investigator Polfe declared last night: "Certain circumstances point to the theory of incendiary, but these are not definite enough to disclose at this time."

However, since the fire is believed to have broken out on the second floor of the building, where no combustible or explosive materials were kept, officials believe that the blaze was started by a fire bomb.

The fire in Millsapah Hall apparently also appears to have been of incendiary origin, investigators say. While the firemen were busy extinguishing the first fire, Hutson, the night watchman, discovered the fire on the first floor, and he put it out with a fire extinguisher. No possible means of automatic ignition was uncovered by the investigators.

Detective Lieutenant Hickley reported that Henry made his home at 180½ South Commonwealth avenue, where he resided with his wife, Mrs. Dorothy A. Henry, an employee of the department of public instruction and educational research of the city schools. Mrs. Henry is a graduate of Columbia University. The couple were married last October and came here in November. Henry left no note or word, and his officers declared his widow could find no reason for the suicide, but police believe that a recent operation and financial reverses probably were the motives.

Former Banker Takes Own Life

Levi H. Henry, 45 years of age, formerly connected with the First National Bank of Sioux City, Iowa, committed suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the head, police reports stated. The body was found under the streetcar bridge east of Bimini Baths near Westmoreland avenue. A .32-caliber revolver was lying near the corpus.

NARCOTIC DIRECTOR TO DISCUSS ENFORCING

The County Affairs Committee of the City Council as scheduled to report today at the continuation of the meeting to discuss the improvement of Laurel Canyon Road and Lookout Mountain Road. PENDING BILL AIMED AT RADIO

Legislation Would Affect Communications

All Wire and Wireless to Be Included in Plan

Same Measure Defeated Several Years Ago

By DR. RALPH L. POWER

The full control of all communication services, including telegraph, telephone, cable and radio, which is now scattered among many departments, would be centered under a Federal communications commission proposed in bills now pending in Congress.

Included in the activities vested in the proposed commission would be the functions exercised by the President under the Submarine Cable Act of 1921, all communication functions of the Postmaster-General, and of the Interstate Commerce Commission and all the work of the Radio Commission, which would be abolished.

The legislation also would authorize the President to transfer to the commission all or any part of any Federal service primarily engaged in matters relating to the regulation of intelligence by any method.

The legislation now pending in Congress embodies no new ideas. Most of them were proposed shortly after the creation of the Radio Commission.

In many quarters, however, it is considered as a logical step and in line with the government's policy of reorganizing the Federal service as to eliminate duplication of activities among the departments. The contemplated change would be purely administrative, the legislation embodying no revision of any existing laws relating to communication by wire or radio.

WATCHMEN INSTRUCT IN FIRE DUTY

Chief Tells How Custodians Can Help
Cut Down Losses

The fire college of the Los Angeles fire department has on the task of giving the watchmen of this city a practical instruction in fire prevention, which will make them better fitted to co-operate with the fire departments. Chief Scott reported to the fire commission yesterday.

The Chief asserted that the fire losses by fire in the city due to inefficiency of the sending alarm. He said, "There are many watchmen, he said, who have no idea what to do when a fire covers a building. Some did not know location of fire alarm. Others did not know where nearest telephone was located."

Following a campaign of instruction to watchmen, Chief Scott and the department planned a campaign with respect to the tendents of inducing the watchmen that they will know what to do in the instant an emergency arises.

The fire college, he said, will lead to 3000 watchmen in the city and their better response. Certificates of achievement will be issued by the college, according to the Chief, and in the time will come when it will be necessary to have them employed.

The fire department published a pamphlet for men, labeled "Lesson No. 1," which describes and illustrates the art of ringing an alarm, telephone and fire alarm.

The pamphlet, he said, is to be issued to all fire departments in the country.

He said, "The pamphlet is the result of a campaign of education and training of fire departments in the country."

The pamphlet points out the importance of men, machines and tools can be brought into play while the fire is still in its incipiency, rather than after it reached a devastating size.
